Mayor Habib stated he presented to every member of City Council a procedure that he wanted to follow for the City to hire a new City Administrator. He stated it is important to note that in the City's form of government, City Council is responsible for policy and the Mayor and City Administrator are responsible for the administration of that policy. He stated he asked Councilmember McSwain for a meeting so they could address the issue, he made adjustments he was willing to which made changes to the procedure, to include his reviewing of all the applicants, him interviewing a certain number and bringing a group to the entirety of City Council to interview for them to select a finalist. He stated he then presented that process to the entirety of City Council and again heard no objection from any member of City Council. Mayor Habib stated feeling like he had the will of City Council to carry out the plan to proceed, he began the process to hire a new City Administrator and last Friday, City Councilmember McSwain filed a lawsuit against him, the City Administrator and the City of Goose Creek, wherein it was filed electronically, it was sent to the Post & Courier, along with a statement from Councilmember McSwain.
