Parent Code of Ethics

- I pledge to help make my child's youth sports experience a positive one.
- I will support the City of Goose Creek Employees, Coaches, and or Spectators by respecting everyone, even though I may disagree with their decisions or actions.
- I will not make any insulting or inappropriate comments and/or threats to any City of Goose Creek Employees, Coaches, and/or Spectators
- I acknowledge that while my child is participating in a class, all siblings must be closely supervised by the parent. Siblings not enrolled in a class are not permitted to be on the gymnastics floor unless it is their scheduled and paid time for supervised activities.
- I acknowledge the importance of respecting the Activity Center's rules and policies. The use of any other rooms or equipment is not allowed unless enrolled in a class or program taking place in that specific area and time.
- I understand that it may cause a safety issue if a child is unattended, playing on the stairs, running in the hallways and in and out of rooms or personal office spaces, swinging on the railings as ALL these are prohibited due to safety. The Activity Center has multiple entry and exit points beyond the staffed main entrance. I will ensure that my children always remain with me.
- I acknowledge that no spectators are permitted beyond the designated area. This will ensure the safety of everyone and prevent injuries.
- I acknowledge that if I have not followed any of the above procedures, I will be kindly asked to refrain from said activity, and I will respectfully understand. I also acknowledge that if I fail to follow any of the above procedures again, I will be asked to leave. My child will be dropped from the program.
