

Imagination in Action Camps

Ages 4—7

Cost Per Camp: $125R/$130NR

Includes all snacks and supplies.

MORE Royal Tales: July 6—10th, 1—4 p.m.

- The Other Mother Goose is back with some more royal tales for children to enjoy. Each day will begin with a new royal tale told by The Other Mother Goose including: Beauty and the Beast, The Snow Queen, The Prince and the Pauper, Aladdin and Sleeping Beauty. Followed by crafts, snack and time for campers to get active and do dramatic retelling of the stories. For this camp we will have time for campers to dress up in clothes from this time period. Costumes will be provided but highly encouraged to come dressed appropriately or bring any “royal” props for a fun and interactive day.

Medieval Tales: July 27 - 31st, 1—4 p.m.

- Take a trip into the past and return to Medieval Times. Campers will enjoy stories filled with dragons, knights and princesses including: The Paperbag Princess, The Knight and the Dragon, The 12 Dancing Princesses, The Princess and the 3 Knights and Knights of the Round Table. Each day will include a specific story, crafts, snack and time for campers to get active and do dramatic retelling of the stories.

Anne Stevens is a professional early childhood educator with 14 years in the school system who also has a love for the dramatic arts. She received her Masters in Early Childhood and a Bachelors in Elementary Education, as well as a minor in Theater from the College of Charleston.
